Feb. 23, 1976

NOTES FROM DKA MEETINGS OF FEB. 11, 19

- 1) Only about half of all members have joined committees. Those who still have to join are encouraged to do so as soon as possible by stopping by the office, or using the committee chairman phone file on the door, and calling the chairman of the committee they wish to serve on. Anyone who signed up for a committee but was not assigned should check in the office.
- 2) There will be a tour of Special Collections, on the second floor of Doheny Library. Feb. 23 at 7:00 p.m. All are encouraged to attend this important session. Find out everything you always wanted to ask about Special Collections but were afraid to know.
- 3) Animation Festival and guests - check the bulletin board for details.
- 4) There will be a screening of Oh Brotherhood in Bovard at 7:00 on Feb. 29. DKA members will be admitted with card. This film was shot at USC and is being shown to distributors. It stars Cliff Robertson.
- 5) Special Programs has moved its job seminars back to allow more invitations to be finalized.
-however-
- 6) On Sun March 7, Al Whitlock will give us a special effects demonstration. Mr. Whitlock did the mattes for Hindenberg, The Man Who Would Be King, Earthquake, and Diamonds are Forever.
- 7) The Banquet Committee will finalize their list of nominees for the Spring Banquet. The final selection will be made at the next meeting.

Ex-member and confidant, Rick Victor, announced his intention to become member (alumni) and confidant, Rick Victor. He should pay his dues some time this week.

-Rick has also decided to keep his beard in honor of the Year of the Celestial Dragon.

SPECIAL COLLECTION TOURS
