Dear Herb:

Really good to hear from you again. I've been wondering how you have been getting along for the last time I wrote, you were on vacation. Seems like that must have been a year ago or so, where has the time gone.

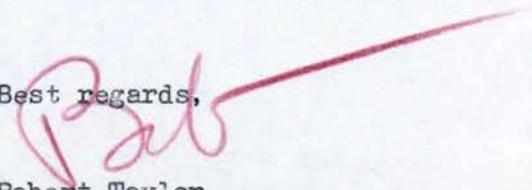

Certainly appreciate your efforts in getting "Sculpture In The Making" finished and from the info in your letter it sounds like the end of the task is in sight. As you will gather from the above letter head I'm still at Training Films, Inc. and if you have a copy of the production review of the Business Screen magazine, Volume 15, Number 1, you will notice I'm listed as Production Supervisor. However, we are a small company and we all double in brass and I've been busy directing, photographing, recording and anything that comes along. This I like for it gives me a chance to work all phases of this type of business.

Some day, or maybe it would be more accurate to say some 'year', I do hope to make a trip out west and see all of the changes you and your crew have made in the good old Cinema Dept. I'm sure I will not know the place except for the outside if you are still in the old art building.

I certainly will appreciate seeing a copy of the film when the sound has been added and also would like to know costs of a dupe which I could have.

Please give my best regards to all the old gang, and many thanks for your interest in the film.

Best regards,

Robert Taylor
